Today we will be travelling north through the Test Valley to Basingstoke. At the museum the streets have been set up to recreate scenes from the Victorian and 1920's Hampshire that our ancestors would have walked and indeed shopped in.

Entrance fee is £16.50 which buys a ticket for the whole year (we may be able to get a group discount TBC)

For those not wanting to visit the museum there is a cafe we can use.

Total distance 75
including return journey to Ower.
