RIDE TO HYTHE

Join us as we take a scenic route through the New Forest with the final destination being Polly's hometown of Hythe, where we will arrive in time for a late lunch (parking charges may apply) There are several cafes & a bakery in the village & a pleasant green by the water for a picnic. Hythe has a grade 2 listed pier which was built in the 1870's & has the oldest continuously operating pier train in the world.

The ride will be approx 70 miles (comfort break at Cranborne garden center)

Suitable for all abilities
